Detailed description: This system contains measures 77 and 78. The first and third staves have a treble clef, a key signature of two sharps (D major), and a common time signature. They feature a continuous eighth-note pattern in the left hand and a series of chords in the right hand. The second, fourth, fifth, and sixth staves are empty, with a small '8' written below the first staff of each pair, likely indicating a capo or a specific fretting position.

167

The image shows a musical score for six electric guitar parts, labeled 'El. Guit.' on the left. The score is written in treble clef with a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#). The time signature is 4/4. The first measure (167) contains a complex arrangement of notes and rests. The second measure (168) shows a continuation of the first part's melody. The third measure (169) features a long, sustained note in the first part, with a slur over it. The fourth measure (170) shows a continuation of the first part's melody. The fifth measure (171) shows a continuation of the first part's melody. The sixth measure (172) shows a continuation of the first part's melody. The seventh measure (173) shows a continuation of the first part's melody. The eighth measure (174) shows a continuation of the first part's melody. The ninth measure (175) shows a continuation of the first part's melody. The tenth measure (176) shows a continuation of the first part's melody.

177

The image shows a musical score for six electric guitars, labeled 'El. Guit.' on the left. The score consists of 12 measures, numbered 177 to 188 at the top. Each measure is represented by a staff with a treble clef and a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#). The first five staves (1-5) contain a whole rest in every measure. The sixth staff (6) contains a complex melodic line in measures 177-188, featuring eighth and sixteenth notes, some beamed together, and various accidentals (sharps and naturals). The notes are primarily in the upper register of the staff.
