The musical score is written for piano in a key with two flats (B-flat and E-flat). It consists of two systems of staves. The first system, starting at measure 112, features a complex rhythmic pattern with many sixteenth and thirty-second notes. Above the staves, there are numerous tempo markings in the form of a quarter note followed by an equals sign and a number (e.g., ♩ = 120). The second system, starting at measure 116, continues the piece with similar rhythmic complexity. The tempo markings continue above the staves, showing a variety of speeds throughout the passage.

Detailed description: This is a musical score for piano, spanning measures 209 to 224. The score is written in a key signature of three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat) and a common time signature. It features a complex arrangement of notes, including sixteenth and thirty-second notes, as well as rests and dynamic markings. Above the staff, there are numerous tempo markings in the form of a quarter note followed by an equals sign and a number (e.g., ♩ = 119, ♩ = 92, etc.). The score is divided into three systems, with measure numbers 209, 216, and 221 indicating the start of each system. The notation includes both treble and bass staves, with various articulations and phrasing slurs.

The first system (measures 254-257) features a complex rhythmic pattern in the treble staff, with the bass staff providing harmonic support. The second system (measures 258-261) continues the treble staff's pattern, while the bass staff has a more active role. The third system (measures 262-265) shows a change in the treble staff's pattern, with the bass staff becoming more prominent. The fourth system (measures 266-269) returns to a pattern similar to the first system. The tempo markings are placed above the treble staff, indicating the speed of the music in beats per minute (BPM).
